The Arranger

Born in 1959, Chris Sharp is a Florida native raised in Cocoa Beach. He received a Bachelor of Music degree in theory and composition from the University of Florida, where he performed in bands under Frank Wickes and Gary Langford, and studied privately with Richard W. Bowles and Edward Troupin. He earned a Master of Music degree in studio writing and production from the University of Miami, studying with Gary Lindsay, James Progris, Alfred Reed, Ron Miller, and Whit Sidener. Since 1984, Mr. Sharp has served as a staff arranger for Walt Disney World Creative Services, providing music for events ranging from street bands to national television broadcasts. He has also written for Universal Studios (Florida and California); Ringling Brothers Circus; high school and college bands throughout the United States; and several service bands, including the famed USAF Airmen of Note. Active nationwide as a clinician and adjudicator, Mr. Sharp's present focus is on developing material for high school and middle school concert bands, jazz bands, and small ensembles. He currently lives in the Orlando area, where he is a composer, arranger, orchestrator, freelance trombonist, and active music educator.

About the Music

Jericho is an adaptation of the African American spiritual Joshua Fit de Battle of Jericho. It has been transported to the '40s big band era using the rhythmic feel and famous ostinato from Benny Goodman's Sing, Sing, Sing.

Be sure players are aware of the triplet subdivision, placing the offbeat eighth notes accurately on the third note of the implied triplet. The overall style should be sustained and connected, with longer note values given their full duration. Accents that appear within slurs should be executed using a soft "D" tongue accompanied by a breath surge. The left-hand piano part may drop out when there is rhythmic complexity in the right hand. In the four-on-the-floor swing style that first starts at bar 29, the guitarist should comp in a Freddie Green–Count Basie fashion—short quarter-note chords on each downbeat.
