The image shows a single page of a musical score. At the top, there is a title in large, bold, black font: "小さな恋のうた" on the first line and "MONGOL800" on the second line. Below the title, there are six sets of instrument names and their corresponding key signatures: B♭, Dm, E♭, B♭, E♭, and B♭. The musical score consists of several staves of music. On the left side, there are staves for string instruments, showing mostly eighth-note patterns. On the right side, there are staves for brass instruments (trumpet, horn, etc.) and a drum set. The music includes various dynamics like 'mp' (mezzo-forte) and 'mf' (mezzo-forte). A large, semi-transparent watermark reading 'SAMPLE' in large, bold, grey letters runs diagonally across the page. In the bottom right corner, there is a small note indicating '2nd time'.
