The musical score is written for Trombone (or Baritone) and Piano. It consists of three systems of music. The first system shows the beginning of the piece, with the Trombone part starting on a whole rest and the Piano part starting with a forte (f) dynamic. The second system continues the Piano part with various chords and melodic lines. The third system shows the Piano part continuing with more complex rhythmic patterns and chords. The Trombone part remains mostly silent throughout the visible portion of the score.
