NOTES TO THE CONDUCTOR

The Irish Suite, by the dean of American light music, Leroy Anderson (1908–1975), is one of the most enduring and endearing works in the orchestral repertoire. Drawn from familiar Irish folk tunes, its six movements present a rich musical palette, brimming with color and fresh invention:

- I. The Irish Washerwoman
- II. The Minstrel Boy
- III. The Rakes of Mallow
- IV. The Wearing of the Green
- V. The Last Rose of Summer
- VI. The Girl I Left Behind

The original suite, commissioned in 1947 by the Eire Society of Boston, was by all accounts written in less than two weeks. Arthur Fiedler and the Boston Pops Orchestra premiered it that year.

Major themes and episodes from the first three movements are presented in this five-minute work that will delight audiences of any age. The scoring is designed to flatter any orchestra, but most especially ensembles that are comprised of less-experienced players. While the instrumentation has been scaled down a bit for this level, the composer's original intents have been faithfully preserved.

NOTE FROM THE EDITOR

All Belwin string parts have been carefully bowed and fingered appropriately by level. The Yellow Very Beginning series includes many bowings as well as reminder fingerings for first-time readers. The Red Beginning series includes frequent bowings to assist younger players. Fingerings for altered pitches are often marked. The Green Intermediate series includes appropriately placed bowings for middle-level students. Fingerings and positions are marked for notes beyond first position. The Blue Concert series includes bowings appropriate for the experienced high school player. Fingerings and position markings are indicated for difficult passages.

The first system of the musical score for 'The Rose Tree' features five staves. The top staff is for Violins I, marked with a forte (f) dynamic. It begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one flat (B-flat), and a 2/4 time signature. The melody starts with a quarter note G4, followed by eighth notes A4 and Bb4, and then a quarter note C5. A first ending bracket labeled '21' spans the final two measures of the system. The second staff is for Violins II, marked with a mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic, playing a sustained half-note chord. The third staff is for Viola and Violin III, also marked mf, playing a sustained half-note chord. The fourth staff is for Cello, marked mf, playing a sustained half-note chord. The fifth staff is for String Bass, marked mf, playing a sustained half-note chord. The score includes various musical notations such as accents, slurs, and dynamic markings.
