cuc ① They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old;
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.

At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them.

4 There is music in the midst of desolation
And a glory that shines upon our tears.

5 They went with songs to the battle, they were young,
Straight of limb, true of eye, steady and aglow.

6 They were staunch to the end against odds uncounted,
They fell with their faces to the foe.

They have no lot in our labour of the day-time;
They sleep beyond England's foam.

But where our desires are and our hopes profound,
Felt as a well-spring that is hidden from sight,

To the innermost heart of their own land they are known
As the stars are known to the Night;

Moving in marches upon the heavenly plain,
As the stars that are starry in the time of our darkness,
To the end, to the end, they remain.
