Program Notes

Christmas on the Thames is a fantasy of English Christmas carols circling around the beloved melody of I Saw Three Ships. It reflects a buzz of activity both in the streets of London and on board the schooner bound for port. Decorations are placed in the shop windows; the smell of warm chestnuts and puddings fill the streets; carolers sing; the mulled punch known as wassail is drunk. The piece culminates with the ship pulling up to the dock amidst celebratory cheers and ringing bells. Merry Christmas, gov'!
