About the composer

David Gorham has been director of bands at Owasso, Oklahoma High School since 1989. The Owasso bands enjoy a wonderful reputation as being one of the finest school band programs in the nation, consistently receiving superior ratings in competitions for many years while performing some of the finest band literature available. In addition to performances throughout the state and region, the band has appeared in the Pasadena Tournament of Roses Parade on three different occasions. With over 50 band compositions published by Wingert-Jones Publications, Gorham has clearly established himself as one of the premier composers of music for school bands, not only in the United States, but throughout the world.

Program Notes

This work is bold and heroic, with just a hint of mystery! First-year musicians will look forward to playing this exciting work in their first concert - it's that easy. But make no mistake, this doesn't sound like your average beginning band piece. Active percussion parts complement the very playable wind and brass parts, which use simple quarter note rhythms to maximum effect. Using the first few notes introduced in most beginning methods, this will be easy to rehearse and delightful for your beginning players to perform!
