TO THE DIRECTOR

This chart was written to provide young players with the opportunity to perform a minor blues chart that utilizes basic, straight-ahead swing figures. Please pay close attention to the articulation markings throughout. They are essential to a good performance. It is hoped that in doing so, some of these phrasing patterns will carry over to the next chart that your group plays.

Have the saxes and trombones play "easy" at m. 9; work for a good swing feel. The same approach applies to m. 21. The brass and rhythm should play the breaks at m. 33 nice and crisp. Open for solos at m. 45. Please stress that this is a minor blues -- have your students study the provided written solos to see how the lines are constructed. This should help them as they begin to play their own solos.

The ensemble at m. 57 should be very "easy." Again, articulations are important. Drums should build the band up to the final ensemble at m. 69 -- this shout should be strong. The final three bars should be nice and easy.

Doug Beach has built a career that includes performing (trumpet), teaching, adjudicating, publishing and composing. Inspired by his interest in playing, writing and teaching, in 1975 he established the publishing company which bears his name. Three years later, Doug joined the faculty of Elmhurst College in Illinois as director of the College Jazz Band; in the years since, his band has toured Europe often (twice at the invitation of the U.S. State Department) and has appeared with jazz greats Clark Terry, Diane Schuur, Louie Bellson, Bobby Shew and others. In great demand as a clinician and adjudicator throughout the U.S. and Canada, Doug has also been artist-in-residence on two different occasions for the Illinois Arts Council.
