PROGRAM NOTES

Play this one with the Count Basie style in mind. The real challenge is to play softly and maintain a steady sense of time. Also note that since the trumpets are scored in a lower range, care must be taken to make sure that they are clearly heard during the softer ensemble sections.

SAMMY NESTICO

With over 600 educational publications to his credit, he is best known as composer for the Count Basie Orchestra from 1970 to 1984. During his tenure with Basie, Sammy directed the recording of ten albums of original music, four of which won Grammy awards. He also arranged and lead the U.S. Air Force Airmen of Note for 15 years, and the Marine Band's White House orchestra for 5 years.

Sammy has collaborated with Steve Allen, Stan Freberg, Bobby Troupe and Johnny Mercer in the songwriting field, and has orchestrated for such major film studios as 20th Century Fox, Universal, Paramount, Warner Brothers, MGM and Columbia. He has also arranged and/or conducted recording projects for Bing Crosby, Sarah Vaughan, Toni Tennille, Frank Sinatra, Phil Collins, Barbra Streisand, Natalie Cole, Patti Austin, Nancy Wilson, Pia Zadora, Paul Anka, Pat Boone, Ronnie Milsap, Daniel Rodriguez and others. His television and commercial credits are numerous.

Sammy received his B.S. degree in music education from Duquesne University and has been honored three times by the school with an honorary Doctor of Music degree. The United States Air Force Band in Washington D.C. also pays tribute to him each year by recognizing the work of promising writers with their The Sammy Nestico Arranging Award.
