"inspiration"

The most important developmental years in anyone's life are, I think, between 16 and 25. That is the time that your character is built, when what you are as a human being is defined.

My whole life was jazz during those years, so I really became an adult through jazz music. To me, jazz is mine. I can't pretend that it's someone else's music, or that I just play it because I love it - I can't separate myself from it at all.

And yet, I realize that it is purely American music, and since I am Japanese, what is my position in the jazz world?

I've heard a lot of black musicians say that white musicians took their music and profited from it, leaving them with nothing . . . I feel I'm involved in that, too. Am I an invader, too? Am I taking from jazz and giving nothing back?

The only way I am able to resolve this dilemma is to give what I am back to jazz by composing. If I have developed my music to the point where a listener can sense my attitudes - that is, my history as it reflects Japan and as it reflects what I've learned of America in the past 20 years - if the listener can hear my history and my individuality, then I have accomplished the solution.
