TO THE DIRECTOR

This piece, composed as an easy/relaxed Count Basie style swinger and reminiscent of arrangers such as Sammy Nestico, is in memory of the composer's own former high school jazz band director, the late Mr. Bill Stanley of the renowned Hall High School Jazz Program in West Hartford, CT.

Note the frequent counterpoint between the brass and saxophone sections, and how the saxes often "answer" main melodic figures played by the brass. Make sure the respective sections are clear about their roles and that all figures are played securely enough to achieve this effect. Unison abounds, therefore special attention to pitch is a must. Pay attention to the specific dynamics and articulations as they help bring out the rhythmic and emotional effects. Solos are scored for 1st Trombone and 1st Alto Sax, both include chord changes for improvisation or optional written solos.

Pianists choosing to use the sample voicings should make sure they are played in a natural rhythmic fashion. Bass players may either improvise bass lines when chords appear, or play the written notes provided.

SoloMate recordings are available at kendormusic.com for new Kendor and Doug Beach releases. This innovative resource lets students practice their solos by downloading professionally-recorded rhythm section accompaniment tracks. A full recording of this chart can be downloaded at www.kendormusic.com.

PETE McGUINNESS

Pete McGuinness has been a New York City-based jazz trombonist, composer/arranger and vocalist since 1987. He has performed with The Woody Herman Orchestra, Lionel Hampton, Jimmy Heath, and the Maria Schneider Jazz Orchestra, and appears on many jazz CDs. His big band plays regularly in the NYC area, and Pete also serves as Professor of Jazz Arranging at William Paterson University and as a clinician for the Conn-Selmer instrument company.
