TO THE DIRECTOR

This chart was inspired by my desire to show students the common roots that hip-hop and swing grooves share. While the drums and bass are frequently playing the same groove together, I have occasionally mixed the two (bass walking and drums playing hip-hop, for example) to create interest and show how they can work together. The title also pays tribute to a great club in Cleveland (OH) called "The Bop Stop."

For horn players, the eighth notes should be swung and also played legato, unless otherwise marked. In the hip-hop groove, the bass, piano and guitar will often have staccato notes marked which should be carefully observed, however in the swing sections, all notes are played long unless otherwise marked.

Saxophones should really dig in at measure 129, paying close attention to dynamics and articulations and swinging hard!

Written out solos have been included for alto, trumpet and guitar. However, students are encouraged to create their own solos or use the written ones as a guide, embellishing or changing notes as appropriate to the chord changes.

SoloMate recordings are available at kendormusic.com for new Kendor and Doug Beach releases. This innovative resource lets students practice their solos by downloading professionally-recorded rhythm section accompaniment tracks. A full recording of this chart can be downloaded at www.kendormusic.com.

Ellen Rowe, jazz pianist and composer, is currently Professor and Chair of the Dept. of Jazz and Contemporary Improvisation at the University of Michigan. Ms. Rowe has performed throughout the U.S., as well as touring in Germany, Holland, Switzerland, Ireland, Poland and Australia. Her CDs "Sylvan Way", "Denali Pass", "Wishing Well" and "Courage Music" (2014) are available on PKO records and at CdBaby.com. Ms. Rowe's compositions and arrangements have been performed and recorded by ensembles including the Village Vanguard Orchestra, BBC Jazz Orchestra, U.S. Navy Commodores, Berlin and NDR Radio Jazz Orchestras, DIVA and the Perth Jazz Orchestra. She has been Artist-in-Residence at the Grieg Academy in Bergen, Eastman School of Music, University of Wyoming and the Pittsford School District in Pittsford (NY), and has also been selected to conduct All-State jazz ensembles throughout the country, including the MENC All-Eastern and All-Northwest groups.
