TO THE DIRECTOR

This chart was inspired by the hard bop style of Art Blakey and the Jazz Messengers. Overall is a hard-driving rhythmic feel - it shouldn't be too heavy, and the horns must be well-articulated and precise.

The initial statement of the head at measure 17 has a softer, small group combo sound. The 2-feel in the rhythm section will help to achieve the right effect. Measure 33 opens up into a walking 4-feel.

The solo break at measure 51 can be assigned to any soloist, sample solo sheets are included for all. This section concludes with a saxophone solo along with backgrounds at measure 85.

Measure 127 starts softly and gradually builds as more instruments are added. The drummer can lead the crescendo through fills around the ensemble figures. These sections are built on 10-measure phrases (5+5). This leads to the peak at measure 150 before a decrescendo into the D.S..

Notated piano voicings and bass lines are provided, and may be embellished by more experienced players. Have the drummer be familiar with the ensemble parts in order to execute the many solo fills in a musical manner.

SoloMate recordings are available at kendormusic.com for new Kendor and Doug Beach releases. This innovative resource lets students practice their solos by downloading professionally-recorded rhythm section accompaniment tracks. A full recording of this chart can be downloaded at www.kendormusic.com.

DAVID SPRINGFIELD

Presently teaching Jazz Studies at Valdosta State University in Valdosta, Georgia, he formerly taught jazz composition and directed the Jazz Lab Ensemble at the Eastman School of Music, where he earned undergraduate and graduate degrees before joining the faculty. David's arrangements have been performed by such artists as Branford Marsalis, Jim Pugh, Lee Konitz, Phil Woods and Joseph Alessi, and in 1994 he received an award from Downbeat for his arrangement of Claudio Roditi's "Portrait of Art."
