

Foreword

Volume 2 of Practice With Bach is a continuation of my idea of making études from the keyboard works of Johann Sebastian Bach. These 24 studies are from the Six Partitas (BWV 825-830).

Two general tempo suggestions are given—Moderato and Lento. Moderato can mean any speed from moderate to fast. Lento implies a slower pulse. The études work well at many different speeds, so please experiment. Articulations are mine (with help from Glenn Gould). Dynamics are not indicated because many different sound levels can (and should) be explored. All of the études are notated in C. However, transposing to different keys and the use of different pitched instruments is highly recommended.

I would suggest always playing with a full tone and letting the dynamic rise and fall naturally with the musical phrase. Although not intended for public performance, I hope that you will find these études technically challenging and musically rewarding.

The musical score for exercise 23 is written on three staves. It is in treble clef, key of D major (one sharp), and 3/8 time. The tempo marking is [Lento]. The first staff starts with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a 3/8 time signature. The music begins with a quarter rest, followed by a series of eighth and sixteenth notes, often beamed together, with various accidentals (sharps and naturals) and slurs. The second and third staves continue the melodic line with similar rhythmic patterns and phrasing. The piece concludes with a final chord on the third staff.
