THE COMPOSER

JaRod Hall (b. 1991) is a Texas-native educator, performer, and composer. He holds a bachelor's degree in music education from the University of North Texas where he studied conducting with Nicholas Williams and Dennis Fisher. JaRod's bands have received consistent sweepstakes awards at the Texas University Interscholastic League Concert and Sightreading Evaluations and have been recognized at the state level. In 2018 and 2019, JaRod's bands at Griffin Middle School earned the Citation of Excellence award, honoring the top two non-varsity bands in the state of Texas.

A passionate performer, JaRod has been a part of many ensembles such as the North Texas Wind Symphony, 3 O'Clock Lab Band, Carrollton Wind Symphony, and Metropolitan Winds. He served as drum major for the 2013 Crossmen Drum and Bugle Corps and was a member of the 2014 Disneyland All-American College Band.

As a composer, JaRod's compositions appear on the Texas Prescribed Music List, The J.W. Pepper Editors' Choice list, and the Bandworld Top 100. His piece Through the Storm won the 2021 Barbara Buehlman Prize for Composition, presented by the Midwest Clinic. JaRod is a nationwide marching band and WGI arranger and consultant. He resides in San Antonio, Texas with his wife Rachel.

ABOUT THE MUSIC

If you've ever ridden a zip line, you know that feeling of anticipation right before you jump. The beginning of the piece evokes this by alternating major and minor chord swells, supported by a warm undercurrent of melodic percussion. Imagine staring across the beautiful landscape, realizing how high above the world you are... and then, BAM! Measure 17 comes, and you jump!

As your feet leave the ground and you grasp the handgrip, jolts of adrenaline zap through your body (represented by the various "thrill" motifs that occur in xylophone and upper woodwinds in measures 28, 32, 36, etc.) The bold and brazen horn-clarinet-alto sax moment at measure 53 should be dominated by the brave horn section (and the same goes for the moment at 62 when trumpets join in). Suddenly, the key change thrusts the listener into a moment of majesty at 72, where the breathtaking beauty of the surrounding landscapes brings peace while gracefully gliding through the air. The primary theme (first stated by the bells in measure 1) returns in the trumpet-alto sax with the "thrill" motif, a bit more subdued this time, in the upper woodwinds. It is answered by the secondary theme, led by the euphonium-horn-tenor sax just a few measures later. The upper woodwinds then take their turn with the primary theme leading into measure 80. At long last, we have reached the final descent at 88, where time seems to dilate. The excitement subsides as we land softly, and relief sets in with one final ding from the bells.

The musical score is arranged in a standard orchestral format. The woodwind section (Flutes, Oboes, Bassoon, Clarinets, Bass Clarinet, Saxophones) and brass section (Trumpets, Horns, Trombones, Euphonium, Tuba) are grouped together. The string section (Violins, Violas, Cellos, Double Basses) is not explicitly shown but is implied by the 'Perc. 1' and 'Perc. 2' staves. The percussion section includes Timpani, Basses, Vibraphone, and other Percussion instruments. The score is marked 'molto rit.' and 'Adagio (♩ = 60)'. The tempo is indicated by a quarter note equal to 60 beats per minute. The score is divided into measures 94 through 99. The key signature is two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The dynamics range from p (piano) to mf (mezzo-forte). The woodwinds and brasses play sustained notes with dynamic markings. The strings play a rhythmic pattern. The percussion section is mostly silent, with some activity in the Vibraphone and Percussion 1 and 2.
