The second system continues the musical piece with similar instrumentation and complexity as the first system.

The third system shows further development of the musical themes.

The fourth system continues the musical progression.

The fifth system concludes the musical piece.
