George Shutack

George is widely regarded as one of the leading composers of jazz ensemble music for younger players. While he has written many challenging works as well, he is best known for his charts at the grade 2-4 levels.

A keyboard player living in the Chicago area, George has been writing for Doug Beach Music since 1978. In addition to being one of the core staff writers, he is also responsible for many of the decisions regarding the company's musical direction. With over 125 compositions to his credit, George is one of the most active writers in jazz education today.

While in college at the University of Illinois Chicago Campus, George studied orchestration. During this period, George began writing longer festival pieces and commissions for the Decatur MacArthur Jazz Ensemble in Decatur Illinois.

Mister T

Mister T was written in honor of one of the great pioneers in jazz education Paul Toloske. His vision as an educator and the list of successful students he produced is virtually endless. This chart is a perfect vehicle for featuring your young Tenor Sax and Trumpet soloists and it offers a multitude of teaching opportunities. The rhythmic figures used are some of the most basic and important building blocks in the swing feel. Also, the minor based harmonic form is easily accessible to young players.

All players should closely observe all articulation markings. Singing the melody is a great way to help students gain a grasp of the articulations. The chart opens with the rhythm section and then the duet takes the melody going into bar 6. The full ensemble takes over at bar 25 and leads us to the solo section.

The solo section finds the soloists playing the first 16 bars with the ensemble providing an interlude at bar 56. The duet then trades four bar phrases at bar 65.

The ensemble takes over following the solo section. Again, articulations are a key element to a successful performance. The duet returns to take the chart out. The last three bars should be slower and may be conducted if needed.
