About the Music

Sleepers Wake also known as Bach's Cantata 140 or Wachet auf, ruft uns die Stimme, is a chorale cantata originally written for horn, 2 oboes, taille (substituted with English horn today), strings, and choir. The theme we most associate with Sleepers Wake is from the 4th movement which features the tenors and is one of Bach's most famous melodies. He went on to transcribe this movement for Organ later published in a separate collection called the Schubler Chorales in the 1740's.

This arrangement of Sleepers Wake showcases only the main familiar melody. This piece focuses on long and legato bowings and musical phrasing. Depending on tempo and director preference, the repeat is optional.
