About the Music

Leopold Mozart, Wolfgang's father and teacher, was known for incorporating everyday life and nature into his pieces. His Musical Sleigh Ride uses sleigh bells and a whip; his Toy Symphony includes a ratchet, a cuckoo and various toys; and his Jagdsinfonie uses hunting horns, gunshots, and barking dogs! In the Peasant Wedding March, which is the first movement of his Bauernhochzeit, or "Peasant Wedding", the performers whoop and shout briefly at specific points in the piece which are indicated with an asterisk.

Comfortably in the key of D for most sections, the first violins leave their comfort zone to explore and refine their E string tone, including G natural or low second finger. The piece is primarily homophonic which invites rhythmic accuracy, has a few dynamic shifts and some bow lifts.
