Program Notes

Written in the style of the marches used in circuses to accompany acrobats, this march from Kelly Bennette harkens back to a longstanding band tradition. Filled with surprises, filagree, and theater, it is a work that adds a special sparkle to a program. It will fit anywhere, from opener to encore, and is worthy of the attention you'll give it.

Performance Notes

Don't play too heavy. Even louder dynamic levels should be played with a lift so that the tempo remains a brisk 120 beats per minute. Separate tones carefully so that there is always the slightest silence between them for clarity and style. The snare drummer should play stick clicks at eye level. If the audience doesn't see the clicks, they won't hear the clicks!
