

Jubilant Sky Fantasy

Ryan Meeboer

Jubilant Sky Fantasy is a fun, upbeat piece meant to bring joy and liveliness to both the performer and listener. After a strong, attention grabbing introduction, the music moves into a light ostinato accompaniment, followed by the introduction of the main melody.

The rhythmic background at measure 39 creates a driving motion to move the piece along, but make sure it doesn't overpower the melodic material.

When the contrasting section begins at measure 57, allow the music to build naturally as instruments re-enter, even though dynamics are written.

When 'the grand jubilation' occurs at measure 73, be sure that this section is played with excitement but is not overblown.
