

Divertimento No. 1 Allegro con Spirito

Franz Joseph Haydn
Arranged by David Marlatt

The Allegro con Spirito movement of the Divertimento No. 1 in B flat is from the Six Feldpartiten (open air suites), composed by Franz Joseph Haydn in the early 1780's. The Feldpartiten were discovered by Karl Ferdinand Pohl, librarian for Vienna's Gesellschaft der Musikfreunde, while researching a biography of Haydn. The pieces were composed for the military band of Prince Esterházy of Hungary and were originally scored for two oboes, two French horns, three bassoons, and a B-flat serpent.
