

ANDANTE FROM TRIO SONATA Op. 5, No. 1

George Frideric Handel
Arranged by Robert Sieving (ASCAP)

INSTRUMENTATION

Conductor Score	1
Violin I	8
Violin II	8
Viola	5
Cello	5
String Bass	5

This trio shines as transcribed for string orchestra and makes possible the inclusion of a viola part, both as an equal player in the primary melodic material and in fulfilling harmonic realizations. All parts are playable in first position with the exception of fourth position required occasionally for cellos. Opportunities abound for students to polish Baroque bowing techniques.

The trio sonata flourished in the late Baroque; the exquisite examples formed in Handel's Op. 2 and Op. 5 are now thought to represent the epitome of the form. Usually intended for two violins, a basso continuo instrument, and a keyboard instrument filling in the indicated harmonies, they were usually performed with one instrument to a part.
