Andrew Robertson Mackereth

Andrew Mackereth was born in Gateshead, in the North-East of England in 1965. A fourth generation Salvationist, he first attended a meeting aged barely a week old. The son of officer parents, he has lived in many places including 4 years in Zambia and nine years in Kingston-upon-Hull. It was here that he began his earliest musical training.

In 1982, he returned to his native North-East to enrol on the Certificate in Brass Band Studies Course at Newcastle College of Arts & Technology, studying trombone, euphonium and tuba. In 1984, Andrew gained a place at the Birmingham School of Music to study Trombone and Composition, later studying Percussion and Conducting also. In his fourth year, he won the Bernhard Brown Memorial Composition Prize. At the completion of his studies, he entered the teaching profession first in Nuneaton before moving to Birmingham to become Head of Music in the largest UK school.

His first publication was the song “Ring the Bells of Heaven” in 1987, but it was 1996 before his first piece for brass band entered the repertoire. To date, more than 500 of his compositions; religious and secular are in print; many frequently feature on the concert programmes of Salvation Army Bands. In November of 2008 he was honoured by the New York Staff Band with a concert of his music entitled Profile 30. Andrew has led music programmes in Argentina, America, Germany and Netherlands and guest conducts brass bands in Germany and Sweden.

Numerous commissions include STANDARD BEARERS for the International Staff Band of The Salvation Army, HYMNUS for Wilhelmina Easterein (Netherlands) and EXALTATION for the Melbourne Staff Band. Other notable collaborations include North York Temple Band, Canadian Staff Band, Amsterdam Staff Band and Songsters. His bass trombone solo: Swing Low has been recorded by the renowned Bass Trombonist: Douglas Yeo and Tubist: Leslie Neish.

In addition to numerous guest conducting appearances, Andrew is the Bandmaster of the Nuneaton Salvation Army Band, The Salvation Army Symphonic Wind Ensemble and The Glebe Symphonic Wind Orchestra.

Divine Odyssey

Divine Odyssey was the second piece I was commissioned to write for the renowned UK trombone soloist: Brett Baker. Brett requested a piece that subtly referenced some of his favourite solo items as indeed my previous commission from him had: the 1st Trombone Rhapsody, later renamed: Song of Joy (EMR 82079).

Indulgently, in this piece there are echoes of solos I used to play by Peter Graham, Leslie Condon and significantly; Ray Steadman-Allen. The structure and tonal language are purposely reminiscent of Eternal Quest. Nevertheless, I hope the piece stand on its own merits.

This edition is somewhat revised from the version that Brett recorded in 2014.

It is not programmatic in the strictest sense, but the music depicts something of a journey, or quest towards a higher goal. The soloist is the narrator of the story, and they guide us through a sequence of situations both good, and perilous. The final note of triumph being arrival at the ultimate destination. The title is a nod to John Bunyan's book: Pilgrims Progress and yet another link to Ray Steadman-Allen.

The main theme at Letter A had been in a sketch book of mine for several years waiting for a suitable opportunity to fledge into a piece.

Performance Note:

The Pesante section at Letter J requires particularly good breath control, it is acceptable to omit some notes, provided the overall flow is not interrupted too much.

The music must offer some sharp contrast between the lyrical and sustained music of the central section and the brutalist exterior passages.
