BWV 595 & 984

Johann Sebastian Bach (Arr.: Colette Mourey)

English:

The Concerto BWV 595 & 984 by Johann Sebastian Bach, in the arrangement by Colette Mourey, highlights the full expressive richness and architectural mastery of Bach's writing.

These two works reflect the influence of the Italian style on Bach, particularly through rhythmic drive, dynamic contrasts, and the virtuosity of the musical discourse. Colette Mourey's arrangement preserves the original spirit while offering a renewed palette of colors and sonic textures. The melodic lines intertwine elegantly within a structure of remarkable clarity. The movements alternate between brilliant energy and more lyrical episodes, revealing the characteristic emotional depth of the composer. The polyphony, always vibrant and expressive, creates a constant dialogue between the different voices. This adaptation also allows audiences to rediscover these pages from a fresh, accessible, and captivating perspective. Between formal rigor and expressive intensity, the work perfectly illustrates Bach's timeless genius.

A vibrant tribute to the art of counterpoint and the elegance of the Baroque style.
